

Ashley Huibregtse
Wisconsin's 61st Alice in Dairyland

Ashley Huibregtse of Plymouth, graduated from the University of Wisconsin – Madison with degrees in Elementary Education and Communications in May 2008. While earning her degree, Huibregtse worked as an event coordinator for First Lady Doyle, organized the annual Governor's Edd Hunt and served as a Cowstodian with the Wisconsin Milk Marketing Board Cow Parade. She gained leadership abilities on campus through the Association of Women in Agriculture (AWA) and Badger Dairy Club (BDC).

Huibregtse was named the 2005 Sheboygan County Fairest of the Fair, Wisconsin's Fairest of the Fairs First Runner-Up, and UW Homecoming Court Representative. In addition to school and work, Huibregtse continues to be active on her family's dairy farm.

"As the 61st Alice in Dairyland I will use my strong communication skills to educate urban and rural audiences across Wisconsin about the importance of our state's diverse agriculture industry in our daily lives," stated Huibregtse.
